This map was developed by the West Virginia Department of Transportation (WVDOT) Strategic Performance Management Division. The map is intended to provide a visual representation of the infrastructure and transportation network in the counties of West Virginia. It includes roads, highways, and other transportation facilities. The map is not to scale and should not be used for navigational purposes. The map is subject to change and updates are planned periodically. For more information, please contact the WVDOT Strategic Performance Management Division.